The Water Question

A large number of ratepayers gathered at the Town Hall last Monday with the object of discussing the water problem with the Council and in the hope of being able to obtain some solution of the difficulties which confront the many households who have to rely upon the water of the water.

The Council as a whole were entirely in sympathy with the citizens through the Deputy-Mayor strongly advocated that the business was not ours for the town to take over, and urged that the citizens by cooperation with the delivery man could eliminate many of the difficulties which were complained of.

Councillor Struthers as chairman of the Waterworks Committee introduced the matter and asked the Mayor to throw the discussion open to the ratepayers present.

H. O. Bredin voiced the sentiments of the citizens when he said that the water delivery was far from satisfactory and that he thought the Council should take over the business to ensure satisfactory service to the many consumers who had to rely entirely upon the visits of the Water Delivery man. He said that he knew of many people who had left town by reason of the poor service in this matter and also knew of others who had been prevented from taking up their residence here for the same reason, and suggested that it was time the Council took over the matter entirely, if necessary to make an appropriate sum from the taxes for the purpose.

Mayor Connolly in reply said that the Council was not in a position to take over the business at the present time even if it was feasible from a business standpoint which he did not believe was the case. It would mean, he said, the purchase of an extra team, enlarging the stables, and the hiring of a man in addition to the purchase of a delivery wagon. As far as making an appropriation from the rates was concerned he said the Council could not do it, and in any case he did not figure that it was a business for the Town to cut into, as it was not a paying proposition under present circumstances and would be a greater source of loss if the Council were to attempt to handle it.

E. G. Allen suggested that, as it seemed from the reports of the different men who had handled the business in the past, the chief difficulty had been that of regular supply to consumers, it would be possible by the fixing of a flat rate of a certain sum per month to make the business at least pay its way, and he had spoken to many of those who were chiefly concerned in the matter and found they would cheerfully pay an increased rate for their water if they could be guaranteed delivery on fixed days.

The Mayor said that he could not see why the present delivery man could not institute the same method and in answer to a further suggestion that consumers would have no guarantee of delivery, said that they would have the usual guarantees of a business man.

A. Swain pointed out that there was the chief objection the consumers had had and that that feature (the uncertain delivery) was the reason for the delivery man finding consumers not ready to take water on the days when he called, and said that it was absolutely vital for a regular supply and he figured it was up to the Council to ensure that part of it.

The Mayor then called upon H. J. Torgerson the delivery man, for his statement.

TOWN COUNCIL

The meeting of the Council on Monday last was practically all devoted to the discussion of the water question and very little of interest was introduced.

Deputy-Mayor Connolly occupied the chair and there was a full attendance of Councillors present.

The usual routine business was dispensed with and accounts recommended for payment including the account for hauling coal which had been left over from a previous meeting for investigation.

Mr. Maure made application for a transfer of lots facing the depot hitherto belonging to C. Douglas, the application being accepted subject to the approval of the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

Applications were received from E. N. MacGregor and F. J. Malloy for a lease of the Town's Industrial Site and after discussion of the matter it was decided to throw the lease open for tender.

In answer to a question regarding the C.P.R. contract for water the Mayor stated that so far the Council had not made any further offer, and stated that in view of the increasing cost of operation it would be advisable to reconsider the offer made them as the Town would be supplying the company at a loss if the cost of operating increased.

Mr. Tullington asked the Council whether anything had been done to the flooding of his property as there was danger of him losing a considerable portion of the stock of horses.

It was informed that everything possible was being done to cope with the situation and that the town engineer had promised to prevent anything of a like nature in the future.

The Town of Bassano.

TENDERS FOR LEASE OF INDUSTRIAL SITES.

TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up till Monday, March 25th, 1918; at 12 o'clock noon for the leasing for farming purposes of the property owned by the Town and known as the "Industrial Sites." Lease to be for a period not exceeding three years. The bidder will state a lump sum per year.

Highest or next tender not necessarily accepted.

Dated at Bassano, March 16th, 1918.

GEO. B. R. BOND,

Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Bacon said that under present conditions it was impossible to make the business pay and gave figures to prove his statements. He said that if the Council would supply him with water free it would help matters considerably as he would be encouraged to give better service if there was a possibility of making the job pay, for he said that when a man could earn $100.00 a month at some other occupation it was not to be expected that he would stay and lose money on the water delivery.

Coun. Torgerson was in favor of granting the delivery men free water but the mayor urged that the matter be given greater consideration by the Waterworks Committee and finally it was decided to ask a delegation of citizens to meet the Waterworks Committee and submit their recommendation to the next Council Meeting.

It was obvious from the expressions of the Councillors that they are prepared to do anything in reason to alleviate the present conditions and we are hopeful of a satisfactory arrangement being made.

German Forces Diminishing
Total Strength Now Estimated at $130,000 by French Paper

The military expert of L'echo de Paris figures that the total strength of the German army in France is only $130,000, divided as follows:

On the western front 200,000; on the eastern front 100,000; on the Balkan front, 30,000.

The French army headquarters' estimate of the Austro-Hungarian army alone is 1,200,000, however, and the French estimate of the Austro-German forces in Italy at 840,000 men, instead of 100,000, the L'echo de Paris figures.

The latter justifies his estimate by saying that on the Anglo-French front, the German forces are known to exceed 200,000 considerably, there are now 154 German divisions, each with three regiments of infantry, and each regiment made up of only two or three battalions. Each battalion, he says, has 1,000 men, and each man has only 200 rifles to a division.

In the same way, he says, in the battle areas there are still 113 divisions in service, each has been greatly weakened.

He adds, however, that his theory is that only a skeleton of the German army is ready to fight, and the count of non-combatants, the now 5,000,000,

A Valuable List of Flax

Large amounts from single cars of flax are becoming more and more frequent in Western Canada, due partly to the high prices paid for the crop, and partly to the care that is now given to leading a car to a capacity.

J. H. Stiles,

Problems of the Organised Farmers

When the writer first became member of the Executive some years ago he soon became aware of the fact that the duties of the Central Board and of the Executive were not clearly defined, and there seemed to be no distinct and well-defined organization, each "body" really was experiencing trouble with the writer that the Executive work could be more effective and efficient. The writer then suggested that there should be a central organization that could be easily connected with the organizing and educational work in the different parts of the Province should have some Local Head.

With the in view the writer, at the Annual Meeting of the Executive, introduced a resolution before the Board of Directors which was passed and adopted by a clear Board by which the Directors in each District was made officially the organizer of that District, and in the work of organizing within his District he became the supreme authority. By the time resolution the Executive was informed to do any act for my direction to the Central Board, but the time of the meeting of the Board must be to a different time. If the writer did the act he can register his protest with the Central Executive. He act must be registered over until it received the approval of the full Board. By this arrangement it was thought that the Executive would have a system of ready reference to the Executive. The writer can sign any act of the Board in the first possible way.

After working under this resolution for a year it was found satisfactory that it was incorporated and is now a part of the organization. The writer is of the opinion that the organization grew in numbers would have to be considerably larger, and necessarily could not be all together so frequently. If the plan is wrong the writer is to blame, but the organization has the writer to blame, but

Prisoners of War

The German Authorities have issued a memorandum to the effect that parcels for Prisoners of War intended for Germany must be addressed to the "parent" (or main) camp to which the Prisoner is being held and must not bear the name of any branch or sub camp or any other place to which the Prisoner might be despatched for special services.

The memorandum states that Prisoners who have been detailed for services outside the "parent" camp have been entitled to receive the German Authorities from the very first, to inform in this way, relatives or other persons from whom they expect to receive postal parcels. Parcels for Prisoners of War in hospitals also come within the meaning of these regulations.

In the interests of the Prisoners it is therefore essential that these regulations should be strictly adhered to as otherwise the German Authorities will not do their parcels to the Prisoners of War for whom they are intended. It is suggested that the Canadian Government, when arranging for Prisoners in Germany should ascertain definitely the name of the "parent" (or main) camp so that they can comply with the regulations of the German authorities in addressing parcels to Prisoners.

B. M. COUTURE,
Denny Postmaster General.

We believe that the plan is founded upon the correct principle and is calculated to work for the best interest of the organization, in order to market its products in a more effective manner, and that is (Article 4) to Section 8, which reads as follows:

"To be obeyed by ballot by the officers and duly accredited delegates, the Board of Directors, the General Secretary, the Vice President, who shall also be elected by the whole Convention, and one director to be elected by the delegates from each of the eight rural federal constituencies, and one from East and West Edmonton constituencies, and one from East and West Calgary constituencies."

The reader will notice that by this plan the organization has adopted the division of the Province by the federal constituencies. Unfortunately the federal constituencies are laid out for political reasons, and not with the view of convenience. The writer is of the opinion that the constituency should be contiguous or to be able to get together easily at any Central Executive. He also feels the case calls for a central unit of the members distributed in reaching the different parts of his constituency. There is no real reason why a Directorate should be co-extensive with the federal constituency. Our organization is not a political organization, but rather an educational and commercial organization, and it is evidently necessary that the people within each District be contiguous and as easily accessible the one part to the other as it is possible to be.

The Ford Saves the Hay and Oats the Horses Eat

IT HAS been estimated that five acres of land are required to maintain one horse for a year, and that the same five acres would produce nearly enough food for two people. If 60,000 Canadian farmers each replaced one horse with a Ford, 250,000 acres would be added to the Nation's source of food supply and enough extra food made available to feed 100,000 people.

Just think what a great service this means to the country at the present time, the benefit to the farmers from the sale of food produced on this acreage.

A Ford car also saves the farmer a week or more of valuable time each year, which can be used for other productive work. The Ford travels three times as fast as a horse and rig—costs less to run and keep, and is far easier to take care of. With labor so scarce and high priced, time means money, so do not delay in getting your Ford.

Interesting Appeal Cases

MR. LECLAIR (Serial No. 342634 M.C.)

This was an appeal by the Calgary Separate School Board from the decision of Mr. Justice Simmons, sitting as an Appeal Tribunal at Calgary, Alberta.

It dismissed an appeal from the decision of Alberta Local Tribunal No. 31, which dismissed exemption claim of Mr. Leclair, a police principal employed by the appellants. Leave to appeal was granted by Mr. Justice Simmons.

The principal ground upon which exemption was claimed was that the difficulty of the service was so great in procuring the services of the appellants that it would be a hardship to require them to undergo the academic qualifications necessary, an adequate knowledge of the policy and decisions of the Catholic Church.

In support of the application it was produced a letter written by Mr. Leclair to the Province of Alberta, in which he states that according to the estimate of the Deputy Minister over 600 teachers had voluntarily enlisted. He also said that before the outbreak of the war, the Province of Alberta had 1000 teachers, and that 800 of these had enlisted, and that since the war began this source of supply had no longer available.

The Central Appeal Judge:

I am not satisfied that the difficulties of procuring suitable teachers, although probably considerable, are in themselves such as to justify the exemption in that class of persons failing within the class called up.

The circumstances that is order properly to fill the post occupied by Leclair by knowledge of policy and church service, and that he is a police principal, do not admit difficulty; but no facts are adduced which in my opinion would justify exemption on that ground.

Appeal dismissed.

Dinner Points of View

This Boche Did Not Gain Anything by His Falsehood

A curious side-light on German standards of probity is found in a recent statement made by the German minister who commanded the German Fleet. Admiral von Tirpitz said: "The British world empire that we have lost is our greatest 'nichts'." Captain John G. Spindler, of the Canadian Legion, gave up £24 when taken prisoner saying it was all he had. When asked if he had any money Captain Spindler replied, "No, no more." A search revealed twenty-one "No" volumes in his pocket book.

The attorney-general asked him: "Do you think in such circumstances you were entitled to give an answer like that?" Lieutenant Spindler replied:

"There may be different points of view in this case, but I am sure that the British have assumed a tremendous load in this war, but one way to get out of it is to be a little bit cleverer," Lieutenant Spindler said.

"A German officer," he said, "will be more likely to be believed than a Canadian Legion officer."

The generosity with which Englandmen treat even unprincipled enemies is well illustrated in this case above.

The peace court adjudged Lieutenant Spindler guilty. It magnanimously granted him, however, out of a full month's pay—two other officers of the Libau the money which had surrendered, the amount they possessed.

Hints About German Diplomatic Activities

Count Reventlow, who does not sleep at night, confronting the enemy, is good enough to supply the British with a valuable hint about German diplomatic activities in Denmark. It appears from a statement of the Prussian Count in his German Embassy in Copenhagen that the German minister in Copenhagen is "walking a tightrope of political interests in curtailed spheres of influence between Danish and British interests." The count is very gratified to Reventlow, who sees a most brilliant future for submarine warfare when combined with "political" operations in the neutral countries. The count's confidence on the north is based on the course of the war, which is far from being impeded by him to remark: "An estimate of the U-boat activities in Germany is also to include the Danish food exports to Great Britain would be very dangerous."
